Manufacturing Facilities and Capabilities

Based out of Noida, India, SRB Exports deals solely with the export of premium quality leather apparels and accessories. While we have an annual production capacity of up to one Lakh pieces, our annual turnover will soon touch US$3 million. We produce premium quality leather garments, which can be compared with the best available worldwide at the most competitive prices. Our specialised and skilled team of designers keeps us abreast of the latest trends in the international market. The excellent quality and design of our products have been recognized not only by the Council for Leather Exports in India but also by our innumerable satisfied customers.

To add diversity to our existing product range, besides using indigenous leather, we also import high-quality leather from countries such as New Zealand, Saudi Arabia, U.K., France and Italy to suit the specific needs of our overseas buyers. Accessories such as zips, snap buttons, buckles, linings and accessories are also imported from Italy, Turkey, Hong Kong, Taiwan, etc. Each finished product passes through 6/7 stages of stringent quality check before it is ready to be dispatched.

Men's Apparel

SRB Exports offers an exclusive range of genuine leather apparel for men. Each of these is a fashionably styled and exquisitely finished product that clients will be proud to own and flaunt. These comprise jackets, coats, belts, wallets and footwear. While several varieties of leather are used in the manufacture of leather apparel, great attention is paid in ensuring that these are of the finest quality. Their designing and finishing are other aspects that add value to each SRB product. Our wide collection of excellently designed products will specially appeal to all our male clients, as they will never be short of choice while selecting a product.

Women's Apparel

SRB's classy and trendy range of Women's apparel is a treat for the eyes. Besides jackets and coats that suit women of all shapes and sizes, our female clients can also choose from a rich variety of bags, belts and other accessories. Our innovatively designed apparel will add elegance and style to the appearance of each female client who sports our products. As each piece is an original SRB creation, our clients can be assured that they will rarely see another woman wearing a similar garment. Further, as SRB apparel offers a wide selection of colours and designs, clients can easily find an apparel of their favourite colour and one whose design appeals to them.

Finished Leather

SRB's finished leather division strictly follows environmental and social compliance that meets overall global standards. All our manufacturing processes are managed and supervised by our well-knit team of leather professionals. As we apply the latest technologies and follow environmental-management practices in all our leathers, these meet the stringent technical and quality standard expectations of our quality-conscious and socially responsible clients. That we can count several leading global brands among our customers is proof of our continued adherence to quality. Our comprehensive range of finished leather can be used in numerous ways. These include the production of garments, jackets, coats, bags, belts, wallets, ladies' purses, trims, embellishments, footwear, upholstery and travel bags.
